

MS Finance
Comprehensive Exam
Summer 2021
Date: July 9, 2021
Starts 10 am and ends 1 pm

You must register for the MS in Finance Comprehensive Exam (FIN 599) via contacting Ms. Penny Dodd from penny.dodd@tamuc.edu at least 1 MONTH before the scheduled exam date. This is an online exam and will be held on July 9, 2021. The exam will have a starting time of 10 AM and an ending time of 1.00 PM, U.S. Central Time. Once you start the exam, you will have 3 hours to complete 60 questions. Registration information is available on the FIN 599-course shell in D2L. After the comp exam is completed, the Finance faculty will decide on the scores. You will be notified by email whether you received a passing or failing grade from the advisor of the MS Finance Program. To pass the comprehensive exam, you will need to make a score of 80% or better. If you register for the exam and do not take it, it will be counted as an attempt unless you contact both Ms. Penny Dodd (Penny.Dodd@tamuc.edu) and Dr. Sri Nippani by email (Sri.Nippani@tamuc.edu) before July 5, 2021.

OVERVIEW

The comprehensive exam is designed to assure that our MS in Finance graduates have an acceptable level of competence in the major functional areas of finance. Successfully passing this exam is required to receive your master's degree in finance. You will either receive a score of a pass or fail. We DO NOT announce the actual score you received or information on which questions were missed. The exam is given three times a year, fall, spring, and once in the summer session. Students are generally allowed one retake. A third attempt requires approval by the Accounting and Finance Department and the Dean of the Graduate School.

The test format is multiple choice, consisting of 60 questions in total from the following four courses. A list of suggested topics from each course is provided below:
